Green Expert Technology Inc. Opens San Diego Office

San Diego, CA. Green Expert Technology Inc. (GreenXT) has opened an office in the thriving, mixed-use Liberty Station section of San Diego. GreenXT personnel are providing support at the San Diego waterfront for multiple Naval Surface Warfare Center, Philadelphia Division (NSWCPD) programs including DDG-Modernization, LCS Machinery Controls Systems, and Integrated Condition Assessment System (ICAS).

"We expect that our new office will not only be a resource for our local personnel but for our coworkers and customers in Philadelphia when they travel to San Diego," stated Allie Dudley, Project Manager and site supervisor for GreenXT San Diego.

Green Expert Technology Inc. is a growing small business that provides exceptional engineering, technical, and project management consulting to corporations and government agencies. GreenXT makes it easy to resource complex projects with highly qualified personnel. For more information, visit www.greenxt.com
